TIPS for MOTORCYCLE INSURANCE COVERAGE

You got to look out for yourself is the sad reality when it comes to vehicle insurance. Most cars on the road will not have enough insurance to cover a serious injury claim of a rider in a motorcycle accident. In Washington State bikers do not have to carry insurance. However, choosing to carry insurance is one of the essential safety precautions that a biker can take, not only for him or herself, but also for passengers.

Here are the motorcycle insurance coverage options for bikers we recommend.

UNINSURED OR UNDERINSURED MOTORIST (UM/UIM) BODILY INJURY AND PROPERTY DAMAGE

While motorists are required to carry insurance in the event that they hit a motorcyclist (or another motorist), they don't always follow the law, or they may not have enough insurance to pay fully for damages.

That's where UM/UIM bodily injury and property damage coverage becomes useful. In the event that a motorcyclist is hit by an uninsured/underinsured motorist, UM/UIM coverage can help to cover the costs of medical bills, lost wages, and property damage.

We highly recommend bikers purchase as much UM/UIM coverage as they can afford. We recommend:

- $500,000 for injury per person
- $500,000 for injury per accident
- $20,000 for property damage per accident

This may seem like a huge amount, but in our experience it's not if you're involved in a serious motorcycle accident. How many GoFundMe pages do you see for downed riders to pay hospital bills and living expenses during recovery? Did you know 2-3 weeks in a hospital with a surgery or two to fix broken bones often costs $200,000 - 300,000? Shocking isn't it? The safest thing you can do is buy insurance to cover yourself just in case you need it someday.

LIABILITY INSURANCE

Insurance companies require you to have liability insurance to get UM/UIM coverage. They also require the liability coverage level to be the same or higher as the UM/UIM coverage. So you will have to have liability coverage, but it is well worth it so you can get the UM/UIM coverage you need.

MEDICAL INSURANCE COVERAGE

Medical payments coverage is coverage for medical expenses in the event that an accident occurs, and a motorcyclist or their passengers suffers injuries. Medical payments coverage can be purchased in different amounts. The coverage is often very expensive. We recommend you have health insurance if you ride. Then you can skip the medical coverage on your motorcycle insurance. Frankly, if you ride and don't have health insurance you are flirting with financial disaster every time you swing a leg over that steel horse.

WHAT TO DO WHEN MOTORCYCLE INSURANCE ISN'T ENOUGH

Even if you have insurance or are involved in an accident caused by a motorist who has insurance coverage, you may not have enough money to fully pay for your damages, especially if you've sustained serious injuries. In Washington, you have the right to file a motorcycle accident claim for damages against the at-fault party when you need compensation to pay for the harm you've suffered.

All claims must be filed within three years under RCW 4.16.080, but can yield damages for all losses. If you or a loved one has questions or need help after a motorcycle accident call us at Max Meyers Law PLLC today for your free consultation.

Families came out in droves to watch the FMX stunt team at the Fitz Army Metal Mulisha event at Northwest Harley Davidson.

The stunts riders were on point as they flipped and soared through the air... what a spectacular show! If you have never been, I highly recommend you check out this event! The best part was that the event went to benefit the Big Brothers and Big Sisters of South-west Washington. MML was honored to be able to donate a vintage Harley Davidson sign for the raffle drawing that took place at the end of the day. A good time was had by all.

We also held a drawing at our booth for a $100 Harley Davidson gift card.

Congratulations to David Corentto of Rochester, Washington for being our gift card winner!

Thank you for recommending us to your neighbors, friends, and family.
